a. Original Articles

Original Articles are reports on findings from original unpublished research to make a significant contribution to medicine. The description of how the research project was conducted is required in this article in order to provide a thorough analysis of the results. This article should not exceed 3500 words and 250 words for the abstract, tables/illustrations up to five (5) and references up to 35.

b. Review Articles

Review articles are solicited articles or systematic reviews which present exhaustive and critical assessments of the published literature in the medical field. The review article should not exceed 4000 words with tables/illustrations up to five (5) and references up to 50.

c. Case Report

The case report is a detailed narrative of symptoms, signs, diagnosis, treatments and follow-up of one or several patients. Cases that present a diagnostic, ethical or management challenge or highlight aspects of mechanisms of injury, pharmacology and histopathology or are should be accompanied by a literature review of the topic. The case report should be divided into Abstract, Introduction, Case report(s), Discussion, Conclusions and References. It should not exceed 1800 words and 150 words for the abstract with 1-2 tables and/or illustrations up to three (3) and references up to 15.

STYLE

All manuscripts should follow the style below:

a. File format

Manuscript files should be submitted in .doc or .docx formats.

b. Length

The length of manuscript is described in article types due to the length is based on its type.

Use Times New Roman sized 12, except for the font named "Symbol".

d. Layout and spacing

Use double-spaced and not in multiple columns.

e. Page and line numbers

f. Language

Manuscripts must be submitted in English.

g. Abbreviations

Define abbreviations only at the first appearance in the text. Use standard abbreviations based on Medical Subject Heading (MeSH). Non-standard abbreviations may be used if they appear in text at least for three times.

i. Equations

We recommend using equation function in Microsoft processor. Single variables (e.g., “ $a^2 + b^2 = c^2$ ”), other symbols (e.g.,  $\beta$  or  $\Delta$ ), or mathematical operators (e.g.,  $x$ ,  $\geq$ , or  $\pm$ ) are not typed using equation function.

j. Units of measurement

SI units are used.

k. Species names

Write using italics (e.g., Homo sapiens) with full the genus and species, both in the title of the manuscript and at the first mention of an organism in a paper. After first mention, the first letter of the genus name followed by the full species name may be used (e.g., H. sapiens).

Abstract [Times New Roman font 12, Single space]

The manuscript should contain an abstract that self-contained and citation-free. The abstract comes after title and authorship information in the manuscript.

It consists of : Introduction, Methods, Results, and Conclusion up to 250 words for Original Article, unstructured for Review article and unstructured up to 150 words for Case report.

Keywords

The keywords should avoid general terms, plural terms and multiple concepts. The appropriate abbreviation is based on MeSH. Keywords are limited to 3 - 5 words or proper and convenient short phrases.

Introduction [Times New Roman font 12, Double space]

Methods [Times New Roman font 12, Double space]

Explain in detail about the research design, settings, time frame, variables, population, samples, sampling, instruments, data analysis, and information of ethical clearance fit test. This chapter may be divided into sections if several methods are used.

Results [Times New Roman font 12, Double space]

This section may be further divided into subsections with subheading. Describe the significance of your findings and the most important part of your manuscript. Follow a logical stream of thought; in general, the interpretation as well as the experimental conclusions that can be drawn.

Discussion [Times New Roman font 12, Double space]

Authors should explain how the results relate to the hypothesis presented as the basis of the study and provide a succinct explanation of the implications of the findings, particularly in relation to previous related studies and potential future directions for research. The content of the discussion section includes: the explanation of results, references to previous research, deduction, and hypothesis. This section cannot be divided into subsections.

The labels of your figure must be matched with the name of the file uploaded (e.g. a figure citation of “Figure 1” must refer to a figure file named “Figure1.jpeg”). The figures are uploaded directly to <https://e-journal.unair.ac.id/BHSJ> (Supplementary file)

Tables [Times New Roman font 11, single space]

Cite tables in ascending Arabic numerals according to the first appearance in the manuscript file. Each table is placed after the references in order.
