Abstract. The abstract should be written in English and Indonesian, no more than 250 words, and contains the essence of the entire writing. The abstract includes background, objectives, methods, results, and conclusions.

Introduction. The introduction explains the background of the activity in a concise manner, a brief review of the related literature, the formulation of actual and factual problems, the purpose of the activity, as well as the benefits of community service activities. The introduction should not be written more than 2 pages.

Method. It contains activity methods carried out in community service. The method of activities should be explained in full. The equipment and materials used in the activity are listed.

Result and Discussion. The results of the activities are explained specifically and concisely but also comprehensive. Results can be supplemented by tables, graphs, photographs, and images if needed. The table, graph, photograph, or image must be accompanied by a narrative text in the paragraph before it. Provisions for writing tables, graphs, and figures are as follows:

- Numbered in sequence, table title, and must be referred to the narrative text in the paragraph before the table. The table caption is placed in the footnote at the bottom of the table.
- Graph/ Chart. Listed along with legend (graphic description). The graph/ chart titles are written below the graph/ chart.
- Clearly stated, centered, and given the title at the bottom of the picture and numbered pictures sequentially.

The discussion contains the interpretation of the results from the activities put together in the Results and Discussion chapter. The discussion is accompanied by a logical argument by linking the results of community service activities with the theory, research journals, and outcomes of community service activities to other communities. The discussion also contains an analysis of community service activity whether they have been able to overcome the problems formulated in the introduction.

Conclusion and Suggestion. Briefly written in a separate chapter consisting of 1 or 2 short paragraphs. Suggestions are written in separate paragraphs with conclusions.
