The discussion contains the interpretation of the results from the activities put together in the Results and Discussion chapter. The discussion is accompanied by a logical argument by linking the results of community service activities with the theory, research journals, and outcomes of community service activities to other communities. The discussion also contains an analysis of community service activity whether they have been able to overcome the problems formulated in the introduction.

Conclusion and Suggestion. Briefly written in a separate chapter consisting of 1 or 2 short paragraphs. Suggestions are written in separate paragraphs with conclusions.

Acknowledgment. It contains gratitude to those who play an important role in the implementation of community service activities such as funding, grants, and so on. At the end of the author must include a statement about there is no conflict of interest as follows: "Penulis menyatakan tidak ada konflik kepentingan dengan pihak-pihak yang terkait dalam kegiatan pengabdian kepada masyarakat ini".

Bibliography. Arranged in alphabetical order according to the Harvard system. All references referred to in the manuscript are written in the bibliography, and vice versa. It is written using a reference manager such as Mendeley or EndNote. Examples of writing a library in a bibliography are as follows:
