Commentary

---

There are at least 5 lessons from PHC in the UK that policymakers and stakeholders at the national level could learn from.

See Page 4-8

Literature Review

---

Leader's commitment in monitoring and evaluation is required to maintain patient safety culture.

See Page 33-54

Original Research

---

Many hospitals were stuttering and unable to adapt to the new payment system. Some hospitals complained about INA-CBG rates that were lower than the real rates, so that hospitals suffered losses.
